

NZIFST Profiles – do I have to?

Yes! In order to register for NZIFST events, sign up for email notifications, manage an organisation's accounts and/or apply for NZIFST membership you must create a profile within the NZIFST system.

We will only send you emails for the event you have signed up for, or if you sign up to receive specific email notifications, such as for member notifications, events, newsletters or the FoodNZ Journal.

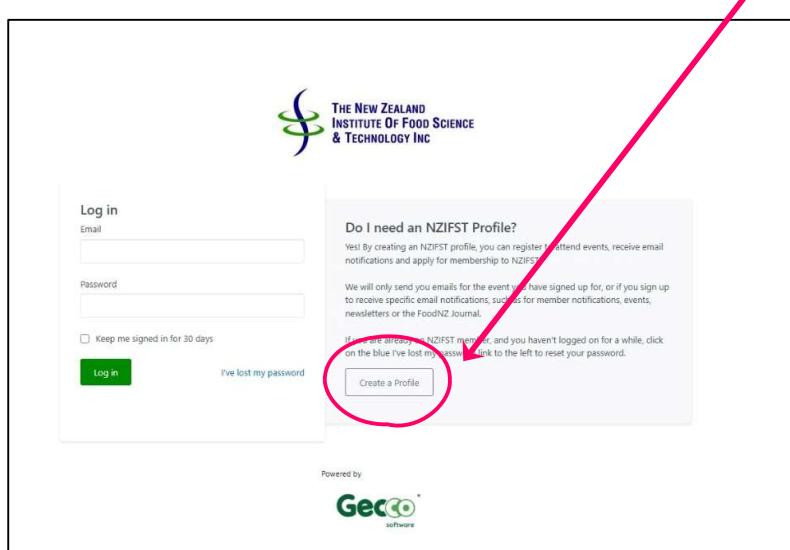

How do I set up an NZIFST Profile?

1. Head over to www.nzifst.org.nz and click on the Login Button, on the top right hand side.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the NZIFST website. At the top right, there is a blue 'Login' button. A red circle and an arrow point to this button, indicating where to click. The page features the NZIFST logo, a navigation bar with links like Home, About Us, News, Events, Conference 2025, Food New Zealand, Employment, and Join Us. Below the navigation is a photograph of a person in a lab coat holding several large bottles of orange liquid. To the right of the photo is a text block about the institute and a 'Find out more about us here' link. Further down are sections for 'Latest News' with links to the 'Latest Nibbles Newsletter' (published 8th July 2025), 'NZIFST & Food Industry Awards 2025' (published 30th June 2025), and 'Latest Food New Zealand Issue' (published 1st June 2025). On the right side, there is a 'Quick Links' sidebar with links to Become a member, Make a payment, Get in contact, and a password recovery link for having trouble creating a new password.

2. This will take you to the login page below. Click on the Create a Profile button

The screenshot shows the NZIFST login page. On the left, there is a 'Log in' form with fields for Email and Password, and a 'Log in' button. On the right, there is a box titled 'Do I need an NZIFST Profile?'. This box contains text explaining the benefits of creating a profile, such as attending events and receiving notifications. It also includes a note about password recovery for forgotten passwords. A red circle and an arrow point to the 'Create a Profile' button at the bottom of this box. The page is powered by the Gecco software, as indicated at the bottom.
