Quality Assurance Coordinator – Auckland

The Company

My client is an established New Zealand-owned food manufacturer. From humble beginnings, they now employ over 250 people and have produced many of the new and creative products you see in your supermarket today. Their continued growth has seen them expand their production facilities in recent years and they now operate out of a modern and automated manufacturing plant operating multiple production lines on the site that have occupied for over 45 years.

The Role

Your key responsibilities will include carrying out general QA functions including, quality checks, operator training, auditing and quality improvement. This is an initial 6-12 month fixed-term contract role to cover maternity leave but has the potential to become a permanent role if you prove to be an asset to the company.

You, the Candidate

We need a person who gets on well with others, who doesn't get flustered and who is prepared to do what's required to keep things going. This role would suit someone who enjoys working with people and training and coaching production operators in quality checks. You will be joining the company at an especially busy time and must be able to hit the ground running and be comfortable working in a fast-paced environment.

To be suitable for this role, you should have the following qualifications, attributes, and experience:

- Relevant qualification e.g. Degree in Food Science/Food Technology
- A minimum of 3 years' QA experience in the food industry
- Knowledge and skills of production processes relating to the FMCG environment
- Quality Improvement experience
- Experience training people in QA/QC
- Proven documentation writing and maintaining abilities
- Attention to detail
- Follow procedures diligently
- Work efficiently with a sense of urgency
- Excellent team player and communicator

Benefits

Join a well-known and loved Auckland food manufacturer. In return for your QA expertise, my client offers a competitive remuneration, career development opportunities and a supportive team environment. For the right candidate, this role has the potential to develop into a permanent position.
